

PUBLIC INVITED TO FORUM ON “HOW CNY WORKS”

The Onondaga Citizens League (OCL) continues its current study, “How CNY Works” by inviting the public to participate in the next study session. OCL is examining the diversity of CNY’s economic base. Tomorrow’s session will be held at the Gear Factory (directions below) (Tuesday, October 25), from 5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. OCL’s study sessions are free and open to the public.

Study sessions are designed to promote dialogue and learning around critical community issues. The study is exploring the interrelationship between employers, workers, jobs, wages, and overall community prosperity, including implications for dealing with the concentration of poverty in Syracuse. Tuesday’s panel will feature both workers and union representatives.

The Gear Factory is located on the Near West Side at 200 S. Geddes St. (corner of W. Fayette). Parking can be found across the street (NW corner of the intersection) or in the shopping plaza just south of the Gear Factory and City Hardware. Centro Bus route 36 will put you just one block away; and bus route 74 is also close by

The Onondaga Citizens League (OCL) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan citizen-based group designed to promote civic education and involvement in public affairs. Its members research and propose recommendations to issues facing Central New York and generates a yearly report on its findings.

Information about OCL is available through the OCL office at 315-443-4846, by e-mail at OCL@syr.edu, or via the web site at <http://onondagacitizensleague.org>.

University College (UC) is proud to administer civic programs that enhance our community through continuing education and outreach. University College is seen as champion of the University’s mission and its tradition of access. For more information, visit the website, <http://parttime.syr.edu>.